Rail Travelers Arrive By Sea After Long Trip

Passengers Whose Trains Snow Stopped 132 Miles From Vancouver Reach That City By Way of Prince Rupert, Having Covered 1,700 Miles

Flood Areas On Way to Normal

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Jan. 30.—The last group of railway passengers marooned for days by storms in the Fraser Canyon reached Vancouver to-day aboard the St. Prince George from Prince Rupert, after traveling 1,700 miles to reach a destination only 132 miles distant.

Approximately 170 persons were held at Barken Bay and Kamloops when the Canadian National Railway line through the canyon was closed by tremendous snow slides January 25. They were routed via Red Fox Junction to Prince Rupert and thence south by steamer.

More than 100 passengers who had been stormbound on marooned Canadian Pacific trains in the canyon and in the Kettle Valley arrived yesterday by steamer from Seattle after being routed by detour via through the United States.

SLOWLY BACK TO NORMAL
Although at least two months will probably elapse before flood waters are pumped from the inundated Sumas Prairie, the Fraser Valley as a whole was slowly returning to normal to-day.

Water in the prairie was reported to be high as ever and the Chilliwack district was still without electric power, but elsewhere areas were reported to be in abundance to-day and with the exception of Agassiz, telephone communication has been restored to all parts of the valley. The situation on the prairie will not be changed until the 400-foot levee in the Sumas River dike is repaired. Pumps were working to capacity on the water running rapidly through the flood gates into the Fraser River to-day.

E. E. Barton, secretary of the Chilliwack board of trade, has reported about 100 families in the Sumas area are in need of help in the shape of food.

Relief Authorities Handle Flood Area

Provincial relief authorities had taken charge to-day of aid measures for flood sufferers in the Fraser Valley. It was stated at the Legislative Building.

Following up the emergency steps taken by Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, last week, the regular relief officials took over the task and will supply the needs of the homeless families, until they can be referred to their homes.

INSPECTORS TO CHECK WAGES

Labor Department Sets Up Division to Enforce Minimum Scales

Inspection under B.C. minimum wage acts will be increased this coming year with a reorganization of the Department of Labor, Hon. George S. Pearson, the minister, announced this morning.

The main purpose is to set up a separate staff which will devote its time to enforcement of the wage laws and enlightenment of the public generally upon the principles of minimum wages.

Mr. Pearson explained that the new policy was not so much for the purpose of enforcing the law, but to assist in educating both employers and employees to the value of the minimum wage legislation.

"We do not want to sound onerous or that they come to us and have us explain the details and principles of the law," he said. "Quite often employers, when they are charged with the law, are unwittingly breaking the law and a hardship may be worked upon them when forced to pay back wages in a lump sum. We should rather try to get them to get off on the right foot, where they stand in the first place. This applies equally to employees."

"The whole thing is we want to sell the idea of the wage laws to everyone and it will cause less trouble for all concerned," he added. "In this connection I might point out that inspectors will improve the fact that the minimum wage is set in no way to be considered as a maximum wage. They are simply a rock-bottom standard."

Ceylon Epidemic Deaths Are 7,000

Associated Press
Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 30.—About 7,000 persons were reported to-day to have died in the district of Kegalle in the last two months as a result of the epidemic of malaria which is sweeping this island.

POISON ALCOHOL VICTIM DIES

Associated Press
Gloversville, N.Y., Jan. 30.—The "creeping death" to-day claimed another poison alcohol victim, the sixth here and the thirty-third in three central New York industrial cities, John Royfair was the latest.

Not Guilty Is Plea Of David Meisner

London, Ont., Jan. 30.—David Meisner to-day pleaded not guilty to the three charges against him arising out of the kidnapping of John & Leah, wealthy London brewer.

Two charges concern the illegal detention of the brewer and the other accuses Meisner of armed robbery. Meisner is accused as leader of the gang who dragged Leah from his car near Barrie, Ont., and held him captive while futile efforts were made to collect $150,000 ransom.

FLIERS BACK AT QUESNEL

"Ginger" Coote and Companion Heard Plans For Own Rescue

Canadian Press
Quesnel, B.C., Jan. 30.—Pilot R. L. "Ginger" Coote and Air Engineer Cliff Pease, unreported since they took off from here January 18 to attempt to bring out a stick man from Finlay Forks, have returned. The man they attempted to rescue had died a full week before they started the hazardous 375-mile mercy flight. Jacob Pease, to whom Air Coote was summoned, died January 11 from what was believed to have been a ruptured appendix.

Coote received word overnight to go to Pease's aid on January 16. Bad weather held him four days, but he took off January 18. Seven miles from Finlay Forks, residents of McKinnon's Landing gathered to see the plane pass over and Coote, thinking their presence marked the landing place, landed. Rough ice stopped the ski, but the plane was otherwise undamaged.

Repairs to the ski occupied three days and severe storms held the fliers on the ground afterwards. One day the thermometer registered sixty-two degrees below zero, the glass fell. On two different occasions the plane was dug out of the snow and men again commenced the march in ice.

DOG TEAM PLAN
Meanwhile, plans were pinned at Quesnel and Prince George waiting for a break in the weather to permit them to start a search for the fliers. Eventually a dog team was organized to conduct the search. Coote and Pease learned of the impending search by radio but were powerless to inform the outside world of their safety.

We were hoping search planes would be held on the ground, as we were, and it was gratifying to hear they were unable to get off," Pilot Coote said. "But when we heard a dog team was coming we decided a start would have to be attempted regardless of the weather."

The morning (January 29) fortunately broke fine although the lake on the way back were fog-covered in every instance."

At Fort McLeod they met a search plane piloted by Gil McLean and signalled they were heading to civilization. They also saw a dog team heading north, escorted by four men, but could not land to discover if it was the search party.

INCREASED FEES ASKED
Vancouver, Jan. 30 (Canadian Press)—Increase from $5,000 to $6,000 in the monthly fund given to the Vancouver Medical Association for the care of relief recipients was voted by the association to-day at a conference with the city council's special relief committee. The present agreement will expire March 31.

JOB INSURANCE BILL LACKING

B.C. Studies Federal Measure; Finds It of Little Value Here

Vividly interested in the question of social insurance, the B.C. Government to-day was carefully studying provisions of the bill brought down in the House of Commons by Premier Bennett.

The initial reaction to the measure from newspaper accounts was unfavorable, but cabinet ministers declined to commit themselves to an offhand view before giving it careful consideration.

"At first glance, it would seem that a measure excluding agriculture, fishing, and lumbering occupations, and casual labor would be of little benefit to British Columbia," one minister said. "However, we'll have to look into it further."

The general opinion was along these lines as it was pointed out that the last analysis of relief rolls in the province indicated that at least half of those unemployed were classified in occupations not covered by the bill.

One phase of the measure which caused immediate concern was the provision for a levy on payrolls to meet the cost.

This, it is understood, is under study as the subject of a possible protest on constitutional grounds. It may invade provincial territory under "property and civil rights" clause of the B.N.A. Act.

In any event, this was a subject which should be discussed at a Dominion-provincial conference before any attempt was made to override provincial authority, it was claimed.

Implements May Cost More

Hon. G. Hoadley of Alberta Expresses Concern at Federal Business Inquiry

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The investor of capital should share with the purchaser of the product a portion of the burden of rising prices, Hon. George Hoadley, Alberta's Minister of Agriculture, said today.

He was referring to the agricultural implements industry and his expression of concern was made in a speech before the committee on the subject of the cost of implements, which was held in the House of Commons to-day.

Chairman W. W. Kennedy said maintenance of the value of implements is a matter of great importance to the farmer. He pointed out that the cost of implements is a factor in the cost of food.

Witness Tells Jury He Saw Hauptmann Accused In New York Night Lindbergh Baby Kidnapped

Hauptmann Was in Front of Bakery in Bronx Reading Paper at 8.30 on Evening of Crime at Hopewell, N.J., Says A. Carlstrom, Surprise Witness For Defence

Associated Press
Flemington, N.J., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Anna Hauptmann testified to-day that her husband, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, on trial on a charge of having murdered the Lindbergh baby, was with her on both the night of the kidnapping and the night of the ransom payment.

Albert Carlstrom, a carpenter, later to-day testified that he saw Bruno Hauptmann in the Bronx, New York, at 8.30 o'clock on the night of the Lindbergh baby kidnapping.

"He was in front of the bakery reading a newspaper," Carlstrom, a surprise witness for the defence, said.

Carlstrom said he was in Dunellen, N.J., March 1, 1932, and went to eat in the evening at Frederickson's bakery in the Bronx, where he knew Mrs. Hauptmann as a waitress. He had been eating there for two months, he said.

He was in the bakery for twenty minutes and Mrs. Hauptmann waited on him, he said.

"Now, while you were in there did you see anybody else?" Edward J. Kelly, defence counsel, asked.

Carlstrom pointed at Hauptmann in the courtroom.

"I saw that fellow sitting right down there," Hauptmann stood up. "You were sure he was in there?" "I am sure."

He added he saw a picture of Hauptmann in a newspaper after his arrest. He told somebody, who told Kelly, he said he did not know Hauptmann personally.

He admitted on cross-examination the first time he saw Hauptmann after the incident in the bakery was in the courtroom.

WOULD MAKE FARM GEAR DUTY FREE

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Hon. Charles Stewart, M.P. for West Edmonton, former Minister of the Interior, gave notice to-day he would move a resolution in the House of Commons to-narrow proposed farm implements and machinery be made free from customs duties.

PLAN WORKING SAYS HITLER

Two-thirds of Aims Achieved Is Comment on Birthday of Nazism

Associated Press
Berlin, Jan. 30.—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, commemorating the second anniversary of the Nazi state, proclaimed to-day:

"In the first half of the four-year period which I asked the nation to devote to the development of the Nazi state, I have achieved two-thirds of my aims."

Spartan simplicity marked Germany's celebration to-day of the second anniversary of the Hitler government's rise to power.

Without torch-light processions or flag parades, traditional expressions of Nazi jubilation, the nation dignified the occasion by showing the benefits of its policy.

In the spirit of the Reichsfuehrer's heralded community of the people, food and fuel worth 25,000,000 marks were distributed among the poor and unemployed under supervision of the winter relief fund.

IVAN PODERJAY ADMITS BIGAMY

Appears in New York Court; His Bride Disappeared

Associated Press
New York, Jan. 30.—Ivan Poderjay, thirty-five-year-old Yugoslavian, pleaded guilty in general sessions court to-day to a charge that he bigamously married Miss Agnes C. Tufts, a native-born American, in New York and Detroit.

Poderjay, who was extradited from Vienna to face the charge, pleaded he did not know he was committing bigamy when he married Miss Tufts December 4, 1932.

Miss Tufts, disappeared several weeks after the ceremony. Assistant District Attorney Harold W. Hastings, who supervised the extradition of Poderjay, questioned the prisoner further to-day about the disappearance of his bride. At his office it was said detectives had worked all night over statements made by Poderjay since his return here yesterday and had found no discrepancies.

U.S. Shipbuilders Accused of Collusion

Senate Munitions Investigating Committee Hears Evidence, "Big Three" Firms Agree on Shares of Government Construction Programme

Associated Press
Washington, Jan. 30.—From a wide-eyed girl secretary and an enraged shipbuilder came the first positive assertion to-day in the Senate munitions inquiry that major shipbuilders were in collusion on naval building.

Miss Judy Kitchen and Laurence Russell Wilder, chairman of the Board of Gulf Industries of Pensacola, Fla., the girl's employer, testified against the "Big Three" builders.

JURY TAMPERING REPORTS DENIED

Associated Press
Flemington, N.J., Jan. 30.—Chief John H. Curtis to-day said "there is nothing to" rumors that authorities had been investigating attempted tampering with a member of the jury trying Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

SUCCESSFUL PARENTS ANTICIPATE CHILD TRAINING PROBLEMS

The chief end and aim of parent education should be to help parents to solve child problems instead of handing them over only after they have appeared. The mother who says, "I never have had any trouble," with any of the common problems of parenthood is one who has seen problems coming and avoided them.

What are, in the main, some of these potential attitudes which are common in averting problems? One of the chief of these is an air of superior indifference. No weapon a mother possesses is so potent as an impassive, uninterested countenance. WORDS THAT HURRY SHOULD NOT

Every child at four years or thereabouts begins to pick up ugly words. In most cases he does not have their meaning, but he uses them with gusto, to enjoy the emotion they create in shocked, horrified elders. It is helpful to point out to a child that he should not use words he does not understand, and that certain words are in bad taste. But this is seldom as helpful as simply to ignore them. If he does realize that a child says something which he intends to be shocking then, in the future, the use of such words is reduced to all intents and purposes.

The child of two or three years has a back-slapping delight. To face a mother and my lovely with eyes shining, "Oh, I won't," is to create a situation which is definitely satisfying to the child. He learns by experience that he has power, far beyond imagination.

But if that defiance leaves the mother with an impressive face and she takes the small rebel by the hand and carries out the repeated command, the words have become as ineffective as cotton wool.

THEY ARE HIS VEGETABLES

Our latest, "What to do when the child says 'I won't,'" which discusses such behavior problems in detail, may be had for a self-addressed and stamped envelope. Address your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

The child who throws down his spoon and proclaims that he will not eat his vegetables should find that apparently no one cares. There is a filling for his stomach, no one else's—and if he does not want to eat them—what of it?

Whether one is doing subtly and tactfully, to clear up the causes that have led to the child's misbehavior—it is certain that while the mother is working upon them, she should make a stern attempt to view the child's conduct with the assumed coolness of disinterest.

Colwood

St. John's annual parish meeting was held in Colwood Hall Monday evening, Rev. A. M. Acheson, L.D., presiding.

A satisfactory church financial statement, cemetery and vicarage reports were given by Captain James Senior, girls' and junior women's auxiliary and Sunday school reports were read, each showing increased membership.

The following officers were elected: Vicar's warden, re-appointed, J. W. Little; people's warden, re-elected, Capt. F. W. James, R.N.; committee, Mrs. S. W. Robinson, Mrs. W. M. Brown, Miss James, Mrs. E. Parker, Mrs. G. A. Harris, Mrs. J. Edwards, Messrs. G. A. Turner, J. Wood, F. Millburn, A. Hamlin and Barrie; delegates to the synod, G. A. Turner, Captain James (Mr. Swindell substitute), and to the diocesan conference, Miss James and Mr. Swindell.

A report from the subcommittee on the question of the parish hall was presented.

Daughters of Nile Hold Picturesque Installation

Mrs. Geo. Ford New Queen of Miriam Temple No. 2: Colorful Ceremonial at Shrine Hall Followed by Banquet and Concert

Mrs. George Ford was installed as queen of Miriam Temple No. 2, Daughters of the Nile, at the picturesque installation ceremony held yesterday evening at the Shrine auditorium.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The personnel of the various committees were chosen as follows: Finance, Messdames A. Brown, E. Hawkins, E. Brown; act., Messdames M. Davis, M. J. Handley, M. Hammingway (Vancouver), E. Carter (Hastings); social, Messdames J. Erickson, F. Fisher, E. Stevenson; dance, E. Wood, A. Marshall, Miss Hammingway; refreshments, Messdames E. Stevens, J. Lyon, P. Scott, E. Wood, E. McConnell; buying, Messdames M. J. Handley, F. Loney; sewing, Messdames F. Loney, E. Stevens, N. Davis; publicity, Messdames E. Schmeckel, W. Wenger, K. Wood and A. Hammingway.

Mrs. Mabel Brown of Seattle, founder and past supreme queen of the Daughters of the Nile, was installing officer, assisted by installing marshal, Past Queen Margaret Morrison, and installing chaplain, Past Queen M. J. Handley. Mrs. J. S. Lambert of Vancouver, played the organ music.

PRESENTATIONS MADE
In presenting Mrs. Ada Brown with her past queen's jewel, Past Queen M. J. Handley eulogized the work of Mrs. Brown, who was the recipient of many lovely gifts. On behalf of the members, Mrs. Marshall made a presentation to the retiring queen, and for the 1935 officers, Princess Margaret Hammingway gave her a gift. Mrs. Brown thanked the members and officers for the gifts and said she could not have achieved the success she had without the splendid support which they had given her during the year.

Queen Margaret Ford presented Mrs. Brown with a gift for her assistance in making the evening so enjoyable. Bouquets were received by Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Brown.

BANQUET IS HELD

At the banquet which followed the ceremony, vocal solos were contributed by Robert Morrison and Miss Isabel Crawford, and solo dances accompanied. Mr. F. W. French also sang, and was accompanied by Mr. Scott.

MRS. SKINNER PASSES AWAY

Noted Woman Journalist, Who Lived Here For Years, Dies in East

Canadian Press
Montreal, Jan. 29.—Former member of the Parliamentary Press Gallery at Ottawa and one of Canada's outstanding women journalists, Mrs. Genevieve Lipsett Skinner died in hospital here last night after a lengthy illness.

Educational lecturer, graduate with honors in law, Mrs. Genevieve Lipsett Skinner was best known for another phase of her versatility—newspaper work. She specialized in writing about the business of government, and became the first woman member of the Parliamentary Press Gallery at Ottawa.

Throughout the long and painful illness which ended in her death, Mrs. Lipsett Skinner's activities were largely confined to feature articles for The Montreal Star, which she joined in 1926, after a wide newspaper experience in other Canadian cities. Most of her later writing dealt with the early histories of Montreal and Quebec, and were both authoritative and colorful.

SOUGHT ELECTION

Mrs. Lipsett Skinner was the first woman to run as a Conservative candidate in Manitoba. She was defeated in the parliamentary constituency for that party in the 1929 provincial general election.

Born in Kankakee, Ill., about forty years ago, Genevieve Lipsett generally referred to Toronto as her birthplace, having moved with her parents to the Canadian city as an infant. When she was eight years old the family moved to Winnipeg, and four years later again to the United States, settling in New York. In 1903 they returned to Winnipeg, where Genevieve attended a local school. She was on the board of the Winnipeg School Commission when she began her newspaper career with The Winnipeg Telegram, with which she was employed for several years.

While connected with The Winnipeg Telegram she studied law at the University of Manitoba, graduating with honors in 1917.

MOVED TO VANCOUVER

In 1926 she moved to Vancouver and took up newspaper work in that city. Joining the staff of The Vancouver Sun she was sent to Ottawa in 1928 to take up a position as parliamentary correspondent for that paper. For five years she was the only woman member of the Ottawa Press Gallery.

Mrs. Lipsett Skinner was quite at home facing audiences of 5,000 or 2,000 people. She spent a year in England and Ireland as a special lecturer for the Dominion.

In Winnipeg she went through the various offices to the post of president of the Canadian Women's Press Club there. She was president of the Montreal branch of the organization for four years.

She is survived by her father, Robert Lipsett, of Toronto, and a brother, Robert W. Lipsett, chief correspondent of The Toronto Star, at Ottawa.

The news of Mrs. Skinner's death will be received with much regret in Victoria, she having resided here for about a year while acting as parliamentary correspondent for The Vancouver Sun. During that time she addressed several of the women's organizations here, including the Women's Canadian Club, on the subject of the high cost of government in Canada, a subject to which she had given close study.

St. Columba's annual vestry meeting was held in the church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. Connelley presiding. Reports from the various departments of the church were read, the financial report showing all obligations to be paid.

Mrs. F. Connelley read the report of the senior women's auxiliary.

Mrs. Dorothy Mills reported continued activity among the young girls of the church. During the year the junior women's auxiliary contributed to both church and Sunday school funds. Regret was expressed in the fact that Mrs. Vesles was unable to continue her work among the young people on account of her health.

Mrs. Dorothy Mills was elected to fill the position vacated by Mrs. Vesles.

Rev. Mr. Connelley reported on the work of the Sunday school. There are 120 pupils on the roll with a average attendance of eighty-five.

Rev. Mr. Connelley expressed his thanks for the hard work and generous support manifested throughout the year in the various church departments.

The following officers were elected: Vestry warden, Charles Mills re-elected; people's warden, Edward Rowlands; church committee, Mrs. F. Connelley, Mrs. W. M. Porter, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Alcock, Mrs. Kanyon, the Misses G. Rogers, E. Brown, E. Brown, and Herbert Huntington, Harry Senahan, Roy Hills and Colin Senahan.

Representatives to the synod are J. Chalmers and E. Rowlands; alternative being Harry and Colin Senahan. Christening of the infant daughter

NEW NANAIMO COUNCIL MEETS

Nanaimo, Jan. 29.—Mayor John Basky presided over the first meeting of the new council on Monday night. Aldermen Cavilley and Inglis were absent through illness. The mayor reported he was unable to attend the convention of municipalities in Calgary owing to the tie-up in rail transportation.

P. A. Hanna, A. Leighton and J. C. McQuillan were appointed to the market board. An invitation from the Rev. J. Wright for the council to extend divine service at the Halliburton Street United Church was accepted.

The request of James Basky to build a retaining wall at his property was referred to the streets committee.

BAPTIST WOMEN NAME OFFICERS

The postponed monthly meeting of the Women's Union of the First Baptist Church was held Monday, with the president, Mrs. A. E. Taylor in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn followed by a devotional led by Mrs. Anderson. The pastor, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, gave a very interesting and inspiring address and thanked the ladies for their co-operation and the splendid work done during the year. The annual reports were then read and the new officers installed, namely: Mrs. Allen Steiner, president; Mrs. Beatrice, vice-president; Mrs. Porter, recording secretary; Mrs. Dancy, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Aldous, treasurer. The group leaders for the year are Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. A. Collier and Mrs. Beat. Two delightful solos were rendered by Mr. Basky.

DEATH MACHINE SLAYS UNWANTED SUITOR OF GIRL

John Hards (center left), thirty-year-old resident of Newbury, Pa., was taken by police after his desperate death machine, improving with a pistol slipped up behind a "No Trespassing" sign on the Hards farm, was blamed for the death of William Carter, thirty-one-year-old unwanted suitor of Hards' seventeen-year-old daughter, Marjorie. Authorities said Carter, who had been warned to stay away, had been shot where he attempted to tear down the sign warning him to stay away. Below, right, is the "death machine."

FIGHT TO SAVE THROATLESS BABE

Dr. P. Moley is pictured in a Baltimore hospital examining little "Miss E." who has been "without a throat." The baby is being fed through a rubber tube inserted in her throat while efforts were made to extend the esophagus by the pushing of living tissue. X-ray pictures revealed that the esophagus had died in the same time interval as the throat. The baby died on Monday.

LOUISIANANS SEEK RULING

Anti-Huey Long Organization Appeals to Secretary of War at Washington

Associated Press

Wash. Bureau, Jan. 29.—President Judge Charles F. Kilbourne of East Feliciana parish was reported today to have asked Secretary of War Dorn whether Louisiana citizens "driven to revolt" by U.S. Senator Huey P. Long's dictatorship could possibly conflict with the federal government.

A. D. St. Amant, secretary of the Liberty League, an anti-Long citizens' organization affiliated with the Square Deal Association, said Kilbourne had sought to determine the attitude of the federal government toward the "revolt."

St. Amant said that Kilbourne, a leading citizen of the vigorously anti-Long parish of East Feliciana, to which the extension of martial law has been expected for several days, had sent the secretary of War the following telegram:

"Citizens of Louisiana, driven to revolt by intolerable tyranny of Long's usurping of power of dictator may come in conflict with his dictatorial, police state. Will this involve conflict with federal government?"

The announced dispatch of the telegram followed the action of announcement of Senator Long calling on the state government to renounce his dictatorship.

CATTLE SUBSIDY

London, Jan. 29 (Canadian Press).—St. Basil, Walter Elliot, Minister of Agriculture, announced in the House of Commons today that the government proposed to extend the present cattle subsidy for three months. It was possible, he said, a further extension of three months would be made to allow opportunity for projected conventions on the most cattle problem with the various Dominion provinces in order to reach a conclusion at the conference scheduled for this spring.

Families driven from their homes there were being housed at Abbotsford. Other families driven from their homes in the lower Fraser Valley were returning as flood waters subsided.

MAYORS SEEK NEW SET-UP

Western Conference Asks Cut in Interest Rates and Relief Refunds

Calgary, Jan. 29.—Mayors of western Canada, following their two-day conference here, today were on record as a united body for future action on finance, taxation and relief problems, having named Mayor Andy Davison of Calgary as chairman, with power to reconvene the delegates if necessary.

The delegates, before ending their sessions yesterday, unanimously accepted the invitation of Mayor Camille Houde of Montreal to attend a Dominion conference of mayors at Ottawa during the present federal session, and urged each city in Canada to send a representative.

The conference concluded resolutions asking for a complete refunding scheme to take in all municipal capital indebtedness at a maximum rate of 3 per cent. With federal government guarantee, refund of all expenditures by municipalities on relief costs, work and wages for unemployed after March 31, and cash relief for all unemployed not covered by the work and wage programme.

COMMITTEE NAMES

A select committee composed of one delegate from each of the four western provinces was appointed to present the decisions of the conference to Ottawa, unless the proposed Dominion conference approves them in full, in which case they would be presented through the larger body.

In addition, provincial committees were struck to meet with the respective provincial governments in an attempt to secure the government's co-operation in pressing the reparation programme at Ottawa.

NEW CREDIT

Other resolutions whipped into shape in the two days and finally passed yesterday after numerous revisions and exhaustive discussion included a petition to the Parliament of Canada to establish immediately a central bank of Canada that shall create and issue

Canadian Press

Kelowna, B.C., Jan. 29.—A plan for a $2,000,000 lottery among the primary producers of Canada which the vote of 2,000,000 producers could put into effect was being talked today among the astonished delegates attending the annual meeting of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association.

The scheme was laid before them yesterday by W. E. Hastings, chairman of the British Columbia fruit marketing board.

Mr. Hastings said he had tried his idea out locally and already Elson, Butts, Gilmour and most Kelowna had accepted it. He had invited two men to his home and made them members of the organization. Each of them got two others, working the idea out that far. Back man in the organization should now get two members and these get two more, until an army was formed composed of units of ten under corporals, sergeants, lieutenants, captains, majors, colonels and on up to the high command. All the work any man would have to do would be to get two others to join. When the 2,000,000 producers of primary products in Canada had all been enrolled with their wives and others, they would form an army any government would head.

METHOD OF COLLECTION

The financing would be simple. The corporate would collect the tax each month for the ten men under them, the sergeants would then collect the sums from the corporals, etc. With 2,000,000 members the fee would reach the grand aggregate of $2,000,000 in a year. This sum would be disposed of by lottery, the members holding the tickets. As only members could participate, it would be an incentive for people to join.

CHANGE IN CODE

When it was suggested later in the evening that the government would be foolish enough to deny nearly half the people of the country, "It is not legal, with our voting strength we would make it legal." Difficulties delegations now meet with would be swept away. When men representing any organization were asked to prove their membership approved of what they said, and sometimes they could not prove it. Under the present plan primary producers would be able to show to show the government their members were behind them. The commander-in-chief would pass the word to his aides and they would relay it on down to the private and there would be several million ballots that could be put through the windows into the Prime Minister's office.

A. D. Heriot of Kelowna suggested such an organization would force resignation of consumers in opposition.

ALL ARE CONSUMERS

Mr. Hastings denied the tendency of newspapers to classify people as producers and consumers. He called producers were the greatest consumers of the products of the cities. He would have a law against any such classification by newspapers.

Associated Press

Washington, Jan. 29.—Creation of an international board to divide up the world's export markets among the producing and manufacturing nations was proposed today to a Senate committee by Secretary Roper.

Mr. Roper was testifying before the Senate Agriculture Committee after Secretary Wallace had told it that restriction of cotton acreage in the United States must continue until foreign demand for the staple increased.

The Commerce Secretary proposed the international board start its work with cotton and later broaden its scope to other agricultural and manufactured products.

He said if the assignment of quotas of agricultural and manufactured goods were given "and the nations of the earth through some regulatory power could compel the member nations to stick by the quotas, the question of overproduction and surplus would be wiped out in a very short time."

Sonny Jones Steps Into Title Picture

Vancouver Negro Must Be Figured in Canadian welterweight crown plans, following technical knockout of Headley in fifth; may meet Wallace

Vancouver, Jan. 29.—(Continued from page 16.)—Sonny Jones, to-day met a dark-skinned athlete the trail of the Canadian welterweight crown in the ring of the Victoria Hotel. Jones, a native of the United States, was the first of the contenders for the title.

The young colored lad, accompanied by a manager, stepped into the ring with a determined look. He was met by Headley, a white fighter from the United States. The two men fought a hard battle, with Jones showing more skill in the later rounds. In the fifth round, Jones scored a technical knockout of Headley.

After the first round the issue was never in doubt as the jabbing, dancing Jones, dubbed "Smasher" by the crowd, flitted through the rounds with a display of speed, boxing ability and punching power that sent Headley reeling twice and finished the match at the end of the fifth round when the referee refused to let the action continue.

Jones is expected to be signed up for a match with Wallace. Harry Miller of Nanaimo, however, says the show must be put up from the floor three times and then a few more only to allow him to win on a technical knockout. The fight, which was expected to take place in the third round and again in the fourth and was down himself in the fifth.

LOVE OF KNOCKDOWNS
Miller dropped the Seattle negro for a one-round in the first and carried the second with a smashing attack to the head. Carter landed in the third, and a fight and left to the jaw and Miller in the fourth and right to the jaw as he came up and hit him down for good.

The fight continued, with Jones showing a terrific left to Carter's right eye, opening a long, deep gash. Carter answered with both hands to the head and the two fighters were standing for a few minutes and then the bell ended the round.

The referee continued the fight, allowing him to continue, and gave the decision to Miller. The bout was scheduled to go the rounds.

Alan Fulton returned to the ring in the second round, and was knocked out by Miller. The referee, who was expected to interrupt a promising fight, was knocked out by Miller. The referee, who was expected to interrupt a promising fight, was knocked out by Miller.

GREAT DEFENCE OF TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS

KING CLANCY GEORGE HAINWORTH RED HORNER

The above three veterans form one of the greatest defensive combinations in the National Hockey League. Critics may call them a veteran but they have to admit that they have been one of the most colorful stars in the history of the game. Hainworth has been having one of his greatest seasons between the pipes and he was largely responsible for the Leafs winning their first seven games of the season. Horner, in addition to being one of the best rearguard players in the big time, usually winds up the season with first place on the penalty list.

Women are much more serious to marry than men, but they are more likely to break up their marriages than men are. They are first at the altar and last at the divorce court. Let's see why this is so.

KNEW LITTLE ABOUT RUDDER

Man in Charge of Mohawk's
Wheel on Night of Disaster
Admits Inexperience

New York, Jan. 29.—The man who handled the "Mohawk," or emergency steering gear of the liner, admitted tonight that he knew little about the rudder.

Only way he knew to which to carry out such an order, Stephen J. Snyder, chief engineer of the liner, admitted tonight that he knew little about the rudder.

Just before the liner's collision with the iceberg, Snyder said that he was in the engine room, and that he was the only man in the ship who knew the location of the rudder.

Snyder said that he was the only man in the ship who knew the location of the rudder, and that he was the only man in the ship who knew the location of the rudder.

Shipbuilding Grows In Scotland Yards

Total Output Last Year Only a Little Under Total Output
For Three Previous Years;
Outlook For Coming
Twelve Months Is Good

London, Jan. 29.—Steady progress in the shipbuilding industry of Scotland last year, says the publication "Engineering," of London, and the output returns show that the Clyde yards for the year were only 1,000 tons less than the total output for the three previous years.

The Clyde yards maintained its position as the largest shipbuilding yard in the world, and while the launches from Britain were just a little less than half the world's output for the year 1934, the Clyde yards accounted for nearly half of the British output.

The following are the Scottish district figures for the last two years:

	1934	1935
Output, tons	1,000,000	1,050,000
Output, tons	1,000,000	1,050,000
